Having heard of Medesky's appointment the revolutionists ordered nothing to be done on the 2d. Postponement of the revolution preventing him from getting money, he resolved to kill Medesky.

More About the Excitement in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 5.—The Board of Trade hall was filled to overflowing last night to listen to speeches by Col. Boutinot, Hon. W. H. Franklin and others, in favor of opening the Indian Territory to settlement. Marshal Allen, who has recent instructions from Attorney General Devens to be present at the meeting and read the President's recent proclamation against the Indians, did not appear. At the opening of the meeting was announced to stand up and execute the order. The assembly was made up and controlled by some of the best citizens of Kansas City, gathered together to give expression to their views in regard to the necessity of opening up to mercable settlements the Indian country, and to do no sympathy with a terrible invasion. The sentiment of the meeting adopted a lengthy memorial to Congress with an accompanying resolution embodying strong points in favor of opening the Indian Territory. Congress taking such action as will be consistent with the best interest of all concerned, as well as that which will soonest bring about the desired end.

—Revenue receipts yesterday, $457.
—No old bonds exchanged yesterday.
—P. B. Clarke, of the Tobacconist, is in the city.
—Adam Williams a colored drayman died yesterday.

The colored military companies paraded yesterday afternoon.
—The Equitable Insurance Co., has paid its tax on gross receipts.

—Every boy in town wants to go a fishing—our devil in particular.

—Go to Cheatham's auction to-night, you can secure bargains.

—A big time was had at the masquerade skating party last night.

The Board of Aldermen held their regular monthly meeting last night.

—This think has gone far enough. The people demand that the cow unbalance be abated.

—The city has struck ten barrels of gasoline "ile," and we hope we'll have a light pretty soon.

—A little granddaughter of Dr. P. E. Hines, of this city died near Littleton, Tuesday night of Scarlet Fever.

—The Board of Aldermen met last night, but they again failed to enact an ordinance prohibiting the running of cows at large.

Pastors are again requested to send in their church notices this morning. It is our desire to publish a correct church directory every year, and nothing, but this is impossible if the pastors neglect to send in their notices. Hereafter we shall publish only the churches, the pastors of which, send in notices.

Now soon will all nature,
Lie still at eve,
Walk forth in the sunlight
To greet the spring lyre.
And the sweet little elfs
Will turn up their lutes,
To give a grand welcome
To the myriad galants
Who think they can write poetry, but who don't know an hexameter from a horse clipping manchine.

Police Court. Only one d— and d— before his Honor the Mayor yesterday. He was shelved, as usual, for twelve hours.

Another Drummer. Kneehill, Patterson & Co., of Philadelphia, have taken out a drummers license.

ye. Who? The Wilmington Review puts a conundrum. It says: "Printers ink is flowing like water in Raleigh, now. The question is, who foots the bills?"

Personal.

W. T. Blackwell, of Durham and O. W. Blackhall, of Kirtrells, both tobacco men, are registered at the Yarboro.

Bussey's Criminal Digest. No practicing lawyer in North Carolina can afford to be without this exceedingly valuable book. The tract and the profession will be supplied by Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh. The book is price $5.00, by mail postpaid.

Dime Party Last Night.

A most delightful evening was spent at the Presbyterian dime party, held at their session room last night. A nice sum was raised from the various entertainments. We did not learn the exact amount, but over $150 was taken in.

Unsolvable Matter.

Mr. Joseph Saliman, Durham, care of Lawrence & Nelson, has bulky letter with two on-cent postage stamps attached to it or around it, so that it is on the backside, anyway. It looks as though it might be a "wollentine." It is held for insufficient postage.

Death from Burns.

Last week, it will be remembered, Olivia Brown, a colored woman employed on the premises of Mr. Higgs, was seriously (and fatally) a fire, now appears, burned by having her clothing catch on fire. Night before last she died of her injuries, after suffering the most excruciating pain for nearly a week.

The Masquerade Skating Party.

A large crowd was in attendance and all enjoyed themselves at the masquerade skating party last night. Some of the girls were very handsome and the entertainment was voted a success. Getting most too warm for skating though. It is warm work.

Fifth District Delegates.

The Republicans of the Fifth Congressional District in Greenbrier, B. I., today elected Thomas B. Keogh and J. W. Hardin, delegates to the Chicago Convention. Jos. A. Hoskins and J. L. Keith are the alternates. Resolutions were passed declaring Gen. Grant the unanimous choice of the Republicans for President, and instructing the delegates to vote for him on all ballots.

Cattle Hoofs.

An exchange says: "Cattle hoofs are quite a feature in the horn button trade. They are worth $50 a ton."

What a boat market Raleigh would make! It is moved and seconded that the roving, vegetable-devouring multitude, who are the bane of the life of its citizens, and the warrantied destroyers of gardens be and the same immediately (if not sooner) converted into button factories."

"Three thousand eight hundred in the affirmative; two hundred and four (two owners) in the negative. "The motion prevails!"

Funeral Notice.

The funeral services of the late Adam Williams (colored) will take place from St. Paul's Methodist church (cold ore) on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We respectfully inform the employers of all the draymen to let them stop work at 2 o'clock to attend the last sad rites to our deceased brother drayman.

Adam Nowell, Committee.

Wm. Wallace, Committee.

Cow-Peas.

We have just had explained to us many years why are cows permitted to run at large? In looking over our "Webster's Unabridged" our eye falls upon the word cow-pea, and this definition is given: "A kind of pea cultivated in the Southern part of the United States, and used as a substitute for short-grass."

This is the mystery explained—the people of Raleigh cultivate cow-peas and they are used by those confounded pests as a substitute for clover!

The cows are right and we and the people are wrong. May we and the people of Black Face be to your superior judgment and in behalf of the people of Raleigh extend to you the hostilities of their gardens and spring pea crop!

Cows Again.

It seems that Greensboro is afflicted with the cow mania as well as Raleigh. The Patriot wants law on the subject.

Next to the hog law—which was one of the wisest laws, of its size, of any in the city for many years—some kind of a law would be acceptable to some folks. Cows are called silly beasts, and they are patient too. They will watch you from a gate a whole day for an opportunity to get in and chaw off your rosebushes and young saplings, and such like消灭者 generally. It is interesting to see old Sukei lower her horns, crook her tail and pitch through a ride thrify hemlock or Norway spruce—repeating the operation half a dozen times before you can reach her with your walking stick—and then find that you have broken your hand—heavily came over her back and not hurt the cow at all. It works conviction out into her future life. Poor girl!

Dead Shot.

Among the large number of sportsmen in the city now but few, if any, may be called "dead shots" and the same is true of smokers, but the "dead shot" five cent cigar sold by W. C. & A. Stromach has been tried for years and never fails. It is therefore true that its name and only requires a trial to convince. Call for the "dead shot" and have no other.
